

1920-2020

Join us as we celebrate
ASA's First Soy Century
at the site where it all began.

ASA 100th Anniversary Celebration & Historical Marker Dedication

With Special Support from Indiana Soybean Alliance

Tuesday, August 4, 2020 ■ 10 am to 2 pm

Fouts Soyland Farm ■ Camden, Indiana

The birthplace of ASA

CLICK HERE FOR REGISTRATION & HOTEL INFORMATION

No charge to attend, but registration required. Dress casually.

See next page for agenda

Attendance limited to 180 people. The program will also be livestreamed.

ASA 100th Anniversary Celebration & Historical Marker Dedication

With Special Support from Indiana Soybean Alliance

Fouts Soyland Farm ■ Camden, Indiana ■ The birthplace of ASA

Dress: Casual

Tuesday, August 4, 2020

10:00 am Event Opens with Self-Guided Tours and Activities

- Heirloom soybean plot tours
- Farm machinery display (including original Fouts machinery)
- ASA history display and commemorative book availability

11:00 am Historical Marker Dedication

- Opening and Welcome: Kendell Culp (IN), ASA Director and 100th Anniversary Host
- Welcome to Soyland Farm: Elisha Modisett Kemp, Fouts Family
- Fouts Poem Reading: Mark Smith, Carroll County Historical Society
- Remarks:
 - Bill Gordon (MN), ASA President
 - Alan Kemper, ASA Past President from Indiana
- Comments and Unveiling of Historical Marker: Indiana Gov. Eric Holcomb

11:30 am Lunch

12:00 pm Program

Master of Ceremonies: Max Armstrong, Farm Broadcaster

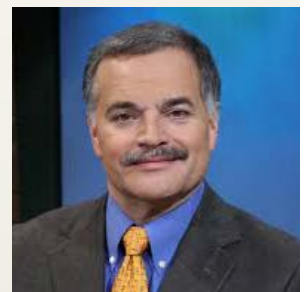

- Remarks:
 - Ray Gaesser (IA), ASA Past President & 100th Anniversary Host
 - Tim Glenn, Executive VP, Chief Commercial Officer, Corteva Agriscience
 - David Rodibaugh, Chair, Indiana Soybean Alliance
 - Karen Plaut, Dean, College of Agriculture, Purdue University
- Keynote Speaker: Steve Censky, Deputy Secretary, USDA
- Video History of Fouts Family and Soyland Farm
- Video Presentation of Farmer Musical Performance: Growing Soybeans to Get Along (song written by Taylor Fouts that was sung at the first soybean event on Sept. 3, 1920)

1:00 pm Self-Guided Tours and Activities Continue

2:00 pm Event Concludes

Eric Holcomb
Governor of Indiana

Max Armstrong
Director of Broadcasting,
Farm Progress Companies

Steve Censky
Deputy Secretary, USDA

CLICK HERE FOR REGISTRATION & HOTEL INFORMATION (Registration required)

Attendance limited to 180 people. The program will also be livestreamed.